Although the United States is the manufacturing country in the world considerable quantities of both unmanufactured tobacco and tobacco products are imported. The leaf imported is mostly devoted to the manufacture of high-grade cigars and certain brands of cigarettes. Cuba is the greatest contributor of leaf tobacco to he United States.

As a revenue bringer to Uncle Sam tobacco ranks among the foremost, bringing in $294,267,609 in 1920 in the various forms of tobacco taxes. This was an increase of more than $99,000,-000 over that of 1919, which, in turn, was larger than that reported for any prior year.
